The FDA recently updated the Nutrition Facts label on packaged foods and drinks. Vitamin D is now considered a nutrient of “public health significance” for the general population, and must be declared.

WHY SHOW 0%?

Vitamin D is one of the hottest nutrients in the world right now, as consumers become more concerned about their immune health and overall health because of reduced time spent outdoors.

Vitacylix's Vitamin D is a uniquely water-soluble ingredient that can help you create cutting edge supplements and fortify beverages/foods that meet the latest consumer trends in the market.

Vitacylix's water-soluble Vitamin D delivers concentrated Vitamin D that dissolves crystal clear, and provides enhanced absorption and bioavailability.
